

Frequently Asked Questions

B.Com.(Financial Markets) BFM

1. What is the full form of BFM?

Ans Bachelor of Commerce in Financial Markets.

2.Can you tell more about this course?

Ans BFM is a three-year undergraduate programme in management. It focuses on deep analysis and study of financial markets, basics of trading and its regulation, market forces, demand and supply which are an essential part of finance in any organization.

3. What are the key subjects in BFM?

Ans Portfolio management, money market, financial derivative, equity research, risk management, corporate account, management account, direct tax, GST.

4. Is Mathematics in 12th compulsory for BFM?

Ans Maths in HSC is not compulsory, but in FYBFM there is maths subject which is compulsory.

5. What is the scope of BFM?

Ans There are various career options available with the person after completing the BFM which includes becoming auditor, accountant, export or import manager, tax consultant, stockbroker, Financial Risk Manager or else the person can go for further studies like completing course of Financial Risk Manager, MBA (Finance), Chartered Finance Analyst (CFA), etc.

6. What is the difference between BFM and other courses?

In the first year across all other streams' subjects are common as we are getting base of everything and in second year and third year, we have specialization related to financial markets.