Marathi Wangamy and Natya Mandal organized the following activities

1. Makarsankrant Celebration

Makar Sankranti is one of the important festivals in Maharashtra. To showcase the importance of the festival, on 4th February 2022, Makarsankrant was celebrated by organizing the 'Haldi Kumkum' program and distributing 'til gud' to Teaching staff, Non-Teaching Staff, and students at the college.

2. Shivjayanti Utsav

Shivjayanti Utsav was celebrated on 18th February 2022 by inviting eminent writer and journalist Shri Jayesh Mestry to speak on “Social Equality – Perception of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj and Swatantraveer Vinayak Damodar Savarkar”. The program was organized to enlighten students about the contribution of these two historical personalities to bringing equality to society.

Mr. Jayesh Mestry described the life journey of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj and his visionary efforts to create equality in society. He beautifully narrated the experiences of Swatantraveer Savarkar during his imprisonment in Andaman and his valuable contribution to freedom fighters. A total of 49 students along with Principal Dr. Vijetha Shetty and teachers attended the session.

3. Essay Writing Competition in the memory of Bharat Ratna Late Lata Mangeshkar

On the sad demise of Bharat Ratna and Nightingale of India Late Lata Mangeshkar, an essay writing competition was organized in February 2022 on the topic 'Ek Swargiy Sur Harpala'. There was good participation of students in the competition.
