

Report of Department of Foundation course for the year 2016-17

- Prof. Neelu Khosla
- Dr. Tanushree Choudhari
- Prof. Amshumali

The syllabus is related to contemporary issues, the attempt is to make the students have a closer look at the realities wherein guest lectures were arranged and project-work on reservation policy, water scarcity, empowerment of weaker sections, globalization and Indian farmer etc. was given assignments.

1. Lecture on “Better policing for safer Mumbai” by Mr Dolphy D’Souza and members from narcotic center made students understand the need of personal safety where in many queries were raised by them.

3. Advocate Ms Aileen Marques spoke on “Cyber Crime and human rights”, creating awareness on uses and misuses of technology -tool like mobile phone in hand. She highlighted the need to be conscious while using the device.

2. A seminar cum workshop by Dr M.S Kamath, Hon. Secretary of Consumer Guidance Society spoke on “Public opinion in respect of unfair practices and use of goods” for the second-year students.

Prof. Neelu Khosla

Associate Professor

- ❖ Published an article on India Kazakhstan in JAIR journal (Volume 1 No 1,2017)
- ❖ Presented and published in National seminar a paper titled ‘Environmental challenges: South Asian Nations zeal for sustainable development’ organized by Yashwantrao Chavan college of Arts, Science & Commerce Sillod District
- ❖ Presented and published in an International seminar a paper titled “Chabahar Port: A strategic calculus for India to Central Asia “, organized by JSM ‘s Shantarambhau Gholap college of Arts Science & Commerce, Department of Political Science, Shivle District, Thane
- ❖ Presented and published a paper titled “Threats and Challenges: India’s need for Nuclear Energy” at an International Seminar organized by SR foundation in collaboration with Dr B.Ambedkar University Aurangabad in collaboration to the with Phranakhon RajdBhat University ,Bangkok ,Thailand.

We congratulate Mr Rohitr Nair to publish his paper on Human Rights Education in India “ with Department of Political Science SSA Government College (A Grade) Ballari ,Karnataka.